A day before ViBe's fourth annual mural festival, art teacher Cat Gadzinski woke up at 4:30 a.m., feeling anxious about the mural she was getting ready to paint on the back wall of the Virginia Beach Art Center.

"It's such a big wall," said Gadzinski, who teaches art at Old Donation School. "It's daunting and exciting at the same time."

She had painted murals before, but this was going to be the largest one. The building is four times her height.

Gadzinski was one of 10 featured artists selected to paint a mural for ViBe's fourth annual mural festival, which took place Aug. 20-29.

Her mural, "Grow With the Flow," is based on a design she created for the community fence mural in the ViBe Creative District. She said the title is related to this past year in general.

"This year was about going with the flow. Things were always changing because of the pandemic," Gadzinski said. "It's more
